

Hello - Please protect migratory birds. Business can handle any extra costs involved, as there not much point in having a successful business if there's no world left in which to enjoy the profits. Study the effects of the towers further, and require substantial environmental review for all new towers. Thank you.